

Read Issue 109 online, TESA Members can click here to retrieve their access code.

NEWS

-

WRAP has concluded a five-week period of public consultation aimed at establishing a dedicated events industry “roadmap” to help the sector tackle waste, better use resources, and save money.

-

The UK events industry was out in force at the Britain For Events Parliamentary Reception held at the House of Commons recently, with a core message that events in Britain are critical to the growth and well-being of local communities and destinations.

TESA

-

Jim Winship, TESA director, reflects on recent TESA, event industry and HSE developments

PROFILE

-

Terrible weather in Plymouth at the worst possible time meant the cancellation of the TESA organised British Firework Champion of Champions competition, although the show went ahead to avoid disappointing the assembled crowds. Event organiser Kevin Minton reports.

MUTA

-

The adverse weather conditions this year have imposed huge strains on marquee suppliers. MUTA President Tony Marsh looks back at a turbulent season

SECURITY

-

Showsec was engaged by promoter Live Nation to supply security consultancy and management for the UK leg of Madonna's MDNA tour.

SHOWMAN'S SHOW

-

It has been a truly memorable year and one which culminates with The Showman's Show in Newbury on 17th and 18th October.

Event Organiser Magazine is the official journal of TESA (The Event Services Association), the UK body representing event organisers and suppliers to the industry. The magazine is published five times a year and distributed to key names in the trade.