About MRL Ltd.

MRL Ltd. are management specialists dedicated to emergency planning & contingency management.

From its base in Yorkshire the company offers a nationwide service of consulting & operational services not only for the event & entertainment industry but also corporate clients & organisations in both the public & private sectors.

MRL Ltd. is able to provide a full site & event safety management service. This includes preparation of the full array of documentation to support the legislative framework through to the provision of a site safety manager, including attendance at pre-event safety planning meetings.

Through the company's network of consultants the assessment, planning and resourcing of medical provision for large crowd events can be effectively managed in line with current legislation & good practice.

Working as part of the production team our project management guarantees a co-ordinated & planned service ensuring the correct standard of care is delivered, with clinical governance maintained, all within the agreed budget.
