

Read Issue 105 online, TESA Members can click here to retrieve their access code.

NEWS

-

The Welsh Government's Major Events Unit recently hosted leading experts and key decision makers in the international major events industry for the inaugural Event Wales International Conference

-

Research conducted by the Event Production Show indicates spends on municipal events to celebrate the Diamond Jubilee in 2012 could exceed those of 2011's Royal Wedding

TESA NEWS

-

Following the decision by the Health & Safety Executive to focus their new event safety guide around health and safety only, the Events Industry Forum has taken the decision to produce its own comprehensive Event Safety Guide

NEW TECHNOLOGY

-

Processing credit card payments on site can be a real problem for event organisers. IPbased systems provides a way of making fast, robust and secure payments, as Underbelly discovered during the last Edinburgh Festival

EVENT CATERING

-

Amadeus is currently dishing up a winning formula as one of the UK's fastest growing venue and event caterers, including the Scottish Open

VENUE FOCUS

-

London's Pleasure Gardens (LPG), a major new arts and entertainment destination in the heart of East London, will open on the Queen's Jubilee Weekend, 1 June 2012. Starting next June, LPG will champion the creativity that helped London win the Olympic bid; it will become home to London's creative talent and showcase great British talent to the world.

Event Organiser Magazine is the official journal of TESA (The Event Services Association), the UK body representing event organisers and suppliers to the industry. The magazine is published five times a year and distributed to key names in the trade.