

The Association of Event Organisers (AEO) has appointed Karim Halwagi as Chief Executive Officer.

He previously held senior positions at ITE and Expomedia Group plc, where he launched and managed exhibitions in the UK as well as in international territories.

Karim Halwagi said: “I am incredibly excited to be joining the AEO and am looking forward to working with our existing and new members, to further enhance and develop the promotion of our industry, and its continued growth.”
