

The British Red Cross is one of 188 National Societies worldwide that form The International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement. Together they have been helping people in crisis, whoever they are, for 150 years.

Everyone at The Event Services Association would like to show their support for this outstanding organisation as they mark this historic milestone.